CURRICULUM VITAE

001. INTRODUCTION

Ninik Vogelsang is a German Interactive Creative Director with a background in design and architecture. Discovering her love for creating things, she studied architecture with emphasis on interior design and construction in Hamburg. Fascinated by all new forms of virtual living and virtual design she later moved on the study of New Media Arts at SAE Collage. Along with her studies, doing freelance work as an architect, freelance set design and freelance art direction all over Europe. After graduating in 2001 and beginning to establish herself in the professional design-scene she moved on working as an art director in a hired position at deepblue-networks. (www.db-n.com).

In 2004 she started working as a Senior Art Director and later as a Creative Director at Interone Worldwide Hamburg, lead agency for the BMW online account. (www.interone.de) During her 6 month stay in China at Interone Beijing in 2009, she worked close to the BMW contact persons of Chinese market and received her knowledge about the premium brand.

Ninik currently resides in Hamburg City founding her own design studio known as Ninik (www.ninik.net).
